VOLUNTAIRE EXTRAORDINAIRE

Shelley Slatcher

Shelley Slatcher started volunteering with BRAG in December 2008. She volunteers as a Reception volunteer during the week and at weekends, as well as working as our Receptionist at most of the gallery's functions, including Opening Nights.

Shelley grew up in Arnhem Land in the Northern Territory, where she went to school and started her first job. As a young adult, Shelley travelled overseas with her sister, visiting Kathmandu in Nepal, and then continued on to London, where they worked for a while. In London Shelley bought a motorbike, which she used to tour round Europe. She ended up in Turkey and then spent six months picking olives in Greece.

Shelley returned to Australia for a short while but it was not long before the travel bug started to bite again so she and a friend grabbed their backpacks and proceeded to hitch hike through Africa.

Shelley has now bought her own home and is very happy living in Bundaberg, where she enjoys volunteering at BRAG, cooking, camping, reading and being near the beach.

Thank You for always being so cheerful and committed Shelley, and congratulations on being this month's Voluntaire Extraordinaire!!!
