

JUNE/AUGUST EXHIBITIONS @ BRAG 29 JUNE - 21 AUGUST 2011

Hung, Drawn and Bent by Dave Machen

Hung, Drawn and Bent is the physical interpretation of images, thoughts and feelings from local artist Dave Machen from his travels between France and Australia. The works highlight the contrast between the lifestyle and landscapes of the two countries.

Without a Brush by The Baldwin Swamp Group

In this exhibition each artist has been forced out of their comfort zone to produce art without the use of a traditional brush. This concept has produced some very interesting and unusual pieces, using items such as kitchen utensils, sticks, string, credit cards and more.

Greed by Christine Turner

This installation looks at the Global Financial Crisis which sent shockwaves around the world resulting in the collapse of large financial institutions and evictions and foreclosures in the housing market.

SAVE THE DATE! SUNDAY ART MARKET - SUNDAY 9 OCTOBER

The Sunday Art Market is BRAG's BIGGEST annual event - this year the markets will be held on Sunday 9 October. Don't miss out!

Fast Facts:

The Sunday Art Market was first launched in August 2008, with the aim of providing local artists an opportunity to showcase their talent and provide sales at no cost to them. Within the space of 4 hours, we had already more than 800 visitors.

In 2009, the Sunday Art Market saw the number of stalls increase and the event attracted yet again record numbers, and in 2010 the event reached new heights with double the amount of stalls and over 1600 visitors.

With the Sunday Art Market shaping up to be the biggest yet, this is an event not to be missed. For more information on how to become involved, please email us or visit our website.
