

LANTERNS SEEKING HOMES

Did you make a lantern for Chinese New Year with BRAG in January this year with artist Jenny Gilbertson? Your lanterns were placed on display for the Bundaberg Chinese New Year celebrations in Lions Park in February and are now safely back at BRAG. Thank you to everyone who was involved in this. Your lanterns are now ready to collect from BRAG. They can be collected between the hours of 10am – 5pm weekdays or 11am – 3pm on weekends. For enquiries please phone BRAG on 4130 4750.

NEW EXHIBITIONS

The Bundaberg Regional Art Gallery invites you and your guests to the opening of:

Industry by Maria Richardson

A series of sculptural installations exploring ideas about traditional “women’s work” and the expectations placed on these roles by society.

Showing Their Bits: BRAG Volunteers on Show, curated by Jenny Gilbertson

An exhibition of artworks created and artworks collected by volunteers of the Bundaberg Regional Art Gallery. This project has been made possible by a Regional Quick Response Grant - an Australian Government initiative through the Regional Arts Fund, supporting the arts in regional, remote and very remote/isolated Australia.

Trans-located by Julie Krone

Centering around timber building blocks, this installation explores the interaction between indigenous and European cultures.

Staging the Object by Len Watson

Examining the use of sugar as a material, Len Watson examines the legacy of minimal art in reference to the sugar industry.
